- (a) The Customer may request the bank to honour and to debit to his account all cheques, drafts, bills, promissory notes, acceptances, negotiable instruments and orders drawn accepted or made out to him, and to carry out any instructions he may give in connection with his account notwithstanding that any such debiting or carrying out may cause his account to be overdrawn or an overdraft to be increased. Where no overdraft has been agreed or the limit of overdraft agreed has been reached, the Bank may nevertheless refuse to carry out any instructions which would result in there being an overdraft or any overdraft greater than that agreed, as the case may be.
- (b) The Customer shall only give Instructions in person, in writing, by any other multi-media banking method that the Customer may have subscribed to or where with the prior approval of the Bank, by email, telephone, facsimile or SWIFT and this shall be in accordance with the Mandate in force at the time of receipt of the Instructions.
- (c) The Bank shall be entitled to accept and to act upon any request by the Customer, even if that request is otherwise for any reason incomplete or ambiguous if, in its absolute discretion, the Bank believes that it can correct the incomplete or ambiguous information in the request without reference to the Customer being necessary.
- (d) The Bank shall not be obliged to accept or to act upon any Request

if to do so would require access to, action by, or information from the Branch, or any Bank Subsidiary located in any jurisdiction where it is not a Banking Day at the relevant time when such access, action or information is required or would cause a breach of any existing mandate facility limit or agreement between the Bank, the Branch and/or Bank Subsidiary (as applicable) and the Customer. In the event that the Bank does accept or act upon any such Request, the Customer shall remain liable therefore.

- (e) The Customer may, prior to receipt of written confirmation from the Bank, cancel any Instructions given where the Bank has not acted upon the said Instructions. Where the Bank has already acted upon the instructions, the Bank may subject to certain conditions and depending on whether any other third party is a party to such a transaction (in which case the bank may already be irrevocably bound to process the instructions), cancel such instructions and may at the bank's discretion levy a charge for canceling and/or reversing such Instructions.
- (f) Instructions received by the Bank from the Customer after Banking Hours or on a day other than a Business Day, shall be processed by the Bank on the next succeeding Business Day.
- (g) The Bank may refuse to act upon Customer Instructions, if: (i) The Instructions are not clear;
- (ii) The Bank has reason to believe that the Instructions did not originate from the Customer; and
- (iii) The Bank believes that in carrying out such Instructions, a law, regulation, code or other duty or obligation which the Bank is required to comply with may be breached.

3.2 Freezing of the Account

The Bank may at its sole discretion and at any time "Freeze the Account" of the Customer:

if any regulator or authority in any country whatsoever or wherever situated requires the Bank to do so, or the Bank is otherwise required by law or pursuant to agreements with any such regulator or authority is required to do so, or if the Bank needs to comply with any requirements associated with any applicable order or sanction of such regulator or authority.

3.3 Simultaneous order in excess of funds

Where the Bank receives several instructions from a Customer at approximately the same time the total amount of which exceed the Available Balance in the Account, the Bank will at its own discretion act upon the instructions in whatever order or manner that the Bank thinks fit.

(4) Accounts

The Bank may at its sole discretion and subject to any regulations (where applicable) and at the Customer's own risk, operate on behalf of such Customer solely or jointly, any of the Accounts capable of being maintained with the Bank.

4.1 Joint Accounts

- (a) The Customer may be entitled to open the Account jointly in the name of the Customer and any other person or persons.
- (b) Where a joint Account has been opened by the Bank, the liability of the Customer with respect to any outstanding liabilities due to the Bank shall be joint and several.

- (a) The Bank may in its sole discretion and subject to any governmental exchange regulations (where applicable) and at the Customer's own risk, open and operate the Account in a Foreign Currency.
- (b) At the request of the Customer, the Bank may debit or credit the Account with Uganda Shillings or any Foreign Currency other than the currency in which the Account is denominated and any amount debited from or credited to the Account shall be converted by the Bank (unless otherwise agreed) at the Bank's prevailing rates of converting the amount from Uganda Shillings or any other Foreign Currency or visa-versa.
- (c) Subject to all laws and Government regulations, where an account is in foreign currency any demand on the Bank for payment from such an account is properly met by the Bank issuing a draft or effecting a transfer or making payment in any manner in foreign currency at the discretion of the Bank.

4.3.1 Holding and credit in foreign currency

Subject to all laws and Government regulations applicable:

- (a) Once a foreign currency deal is confirmed and the Customer has been assigned a deal reference, this will constitute a firm commitment on the part of the Customer to uphold the transaction.
- (b) The Bank will credit the counter-value of the Customer's holdings in foreign currencies to account with its correspondents in various countries of origin;
- (c) Such accounts are in the Bank's name but are at the Customer's risk, and the Customer accepts responsibility for any ensuing consequences including but not limited to consequences of legal, fiscal or other measures affecting the accounts;
- (d) Except in the case of an assignment by the Customer to the Bank, the Customer may dispose of such funds only by means of requests for cheques or transfers in the original currencies at the Bank's option;
- (e) The Bank will convert foreign currency at the exchange rate available on the first working day subject to the Bank's standard charges which will be deducted from the Customer's accounts. The timing of debits and credits to the Customer's account will depend on the currencies involved.

(f) The Bank will accept foreign cheques on terms available upon request. Cheques payable abroad which may be received for payment into the Customer's account may be negotiated or collected at the Customer's expense. If cheques are returned unpaid for any reason, the Bank will debit the Customer's account even if the return takes place after the Bank has advised the Customer of payment of the cheque. Negotiation and collection of cheques shall be subject to the International Chamber of Commerce Uniform Rules for Collections.

(g) All credits granted in foreign currencies are also subject to this clause. (h) Foreign Banks may extend credit to instruments sent for collection under Cash Letter scheme or otherwise, before actual realization of Instrument. In such cases, if the credit is afforded to the customer account before (21) working days after the lodgement of instruments for collection, the amount credited should be treated as "credit subject to realization" and the customer has no right to utilize these funds till the final realization confirmation from the paying Bank.

4.3.2. The Bank shall have no responsibility to the customer for:

- (a) Any diminution due to taxes or imposts or depreciation in the Bank's discretion may be deposited by the Bank in the Bank's name and subject to the Bank's control with such depository(ies) as the bank may select; or
- (b) The unavailability of such funds if, as a result of any threatened requisition, involuntary, distraint of any character, exercise of military or usurped powers or other cause(s) beyond the Bank's control, or should the Bank decide in its sole discretion and acting in good faith to close, or suspend or terminate operations in Uganda.

 - (c) the Customer has been negligent or has failed to comply with the Cheque Book Terms and Conditions.
 - (d) the forgery has been perpetrated by an employee, servant, agent, contractor or persons known to the Customer.
- (vii) the Bank may refuse to make payment of a Cheque in respect of which the date appearing on the Cheque is more than six (6) months prior to the date on which it is due for payment by the Bank ("Stale Cheque") or the date appearing on the Cheque is any date succeeding the date on which it is due for payment by the Bank ("Postdated Cheque").

- (viii) The Bank only acts as the Customer's collecting agent and if the Cheque is lost or stolen while in the custody of the Bank even when the Bank has been negligent, the Bank shall not be held liable for the loss or damage (whether consequential or otherwise) suffered by the Customer or any other person.
- (ix) The Bank may, upon prior written request by the Customer stop payment of a Cheque provided that such notice shall be received before the Bank has made or is obliged to make payment on the Cheque. The Bank reserves the right to charge the Customer an administrative fee for acting upon Instruction to stop payment of a Cheque.

- 5. Upon closure of any account the Customer will return to the Bank any remaining uncompleted cheque forms relating to the account.

6.4.2 Deposit of cheques and other instruments

- (a) All cheques or other orders for payment of whatsoever nature are accepted for deposit or collection at the risk of the Customer. Where any cheque or order is unpaid for any reason whatsoever (including but not limited to physical loss), the bank may debit the customer with the amount previously credited (taking into account any exchange fluctuation where relevant) in respect of that cheque or order, together with interest since the date of crediting if the account thereby is overdrawn.
- (b) Where cheques, other negotiable instruments or commercial documents are deposited for the credit of the account, whether or not payable at or by the Bank, the amount of such deposits shall be made available for withdrawal only when actually collected by the Bank.

- (c) Although immediate credit may have been given for cheques received for collection through clearing, they are not available for drawing against until the relative cheques are realized. In case such credits are allowed to be drawn against, it is not to be construed that the relative cheques have been honoured. The Bank reserves the right to debit the Customer's account or in any other way recover the amount in case such cheques are returned unpaid.
- (d) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 10 herein any money credited to the Customer in error must be repaid immediately together with applicable interest upon demand.

6.4.3 No duty on Bank to protest

The Bank is not liable for any loss or damage suffered by any party if any dishonoured bill is not noted or protested or both. The bank will nevertheless endeavour to cause dishonoured bills to be noted or protested or both, provided that it receives instructions to do so in reasonable time.

6.5 Payment by Third Parties

The Bank may credit the Customer with amounts paid by third parties. All instruments such as cheques, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments or commercial documents, tendered for collection and credit to the Customer's account are accepted by the bank subject to the following express terms and conditions.

- (a) Instruments not payable at the Bank are accepted by the Bank only for transmission on behalf of the Customer at the Customer's entire risk and responsibility.

- (b) Where the instruments are forwarded by the Bank by post correspondent or agent or subagent of the Bank; the Post Office and the courier, as also the Bank or the correspondent, agent or subagent of the Bank will be deemed to be the Customer's own "agent for collection", even though couriers, banks, correspondents, agents or subagents are of the Bank's choice.

6.6 Standing Orders & Direct Debits

The Bank may permit the Customer to use automatic debits or withdrawals (such as Direct Debits or Standing Order Instructions) from the Account unless the Specific Terms and Conditions of the Account provided otherwise. All such transactions will be set up at the Bank's discretion and the Bank reserves the right to honour the Instructions subject to the Available Balance.

- (a) The Customer may borrow money from the Bank by way of overdraft, loans, advances or other financial accommodation are secured or not. The Bank will be entitled to debit the Account with Interest and any costs or charges incurred in connection with any facility. Nothing herein constitutes approval of any facility.
- (b) If an overdraft has been approved by the Bank in relation to the Account, the limit approved by the Bank in respect thereof must not be exceeded without the Bank's prior written consent. The Bank may refuse to pay a cheque, make any payment or allow a withdrawal if the payment or withdrawal would cause the overdraft limit to be exceeded.

- (c) If any limits in respect of the Account are exceeded without the Bank's consent, the Bank may charge a fee and additional Interest may be levied on the entire overdrawn balance for each day that the overdraft limit is exceeded. The Bank is entitled to demand from the Customer the immediate repayment in full, together with interest if the Account is overdrawn or the facility is not repaid on time.

7.2 Interest & Default Interest

- (a) Interest shall only be payable on the credit balance in an Interest Earning Account and shall be calculated at the Bank's specified rate which may be varied by the Bank at its own discretion from time to time. Interest (if any) will be paid and credited to the Account CJS specified in the Specific Terms and Conditions (if any) relating to the Account.
- (b) The Bank shall be entitled to charge additional Interest at the Bank's prevailing rates where the Customer has failed to make payment of any amount due to the Bank under these Terms and Conditions or otherwise.
- (c) Interest rates payable by the Customer under any provisions of this agreement shall be subject to change without notification.
- (d) All payments due to be made by the Customer whether of principal Interest or otherwise shall be made without any set off counterclaim or restriction and free and clear of and without any deduction whether for or on account of any present or future taxes or otherwise. If at any time an applicable law regulation or regulatory requirement or any competent taxing authority requires the Customer to make any deduction or withholding in respect of Taxes from any payment due for the account of the Bank the sum due from the Customer in respect of such payment shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that, after the making of such deduction or withholding, the Bank receives a net sum equal to the sum which the Bank would have received has and the Customer shall indemnify the Bank against any losses or costs incurred by the Bank by reason of any failure of the Customer to make any such deduction or withholding.

7.3 Repayment on overdrawn accounts

The Bank is entitled to demand the immediate repayment with interest of any account that is overdrawn.

7.4 Right of Lien

- (a) When the Customer is indebted to the Bank, the Bank shall have a general lien over all property of the customer in the Bank's possession, including, but not limited to, cash, goods, securities or valuables deposited for safe custody or as security, cheques presented for repayment, bills and any other property movable or immovable charged to secure payment of any money whether or not that money has been repaid, and also over all property over which by the general law the Bank has a lien.
- (b) Where the Customer is indebted in circumstances giving the Bank a right of set off, all securities as set out in Section 7.4 (a) hereof are held as security for the debt.
- (c) The Bank may at any time give the customer notice in writing that if an accrued debit is not paid within a stated period being not less than 14 days after the receipt of the Customer of the notice then the Bank may without further notice realize sufficient relief of the Customer's assets to discharge the debt.
- (d) If the debt is not discharged within the time allowed, the Bank may realize sufficient relief of the Customer's assets to discharge the debt, and the Customer constitutes the Bank his attorney for the purpose of conducting the sale, giving title to the assets sold and all other necessary matters. Any sum remaining after such a transaction will be held for the Customer subject to these Terms and Conditions.

- (e) The Bank is under no obligation in respect of any sale under Section 7.4(d) other than for that done in bad faith ("mala fides").
- (f) Funds in Foreign currencies which are subject to the bank's lien may be set off against debts or realized at the rate of exchange current at the date of set off or realization. The Bank accepts no liability for any loss caused by exchange fluctuations.
- (g) Deposits including those held in foreign currencies, and for a given period of time may be set-off against debts notwithstanding that the time period of the deposit has not expired.

7.5 Right of set-off

All operations between the Bank and the Customer of whatsoever nature shall be considered and treated for all purposes as a single integral and indivisible account, and the Bank shall (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) have the right (but not the obligation) to close and set-off any account in the name of the Customer against any such Account or in that of any establishment of which the Customer is sole proprietor or vice versa.

7.6 Banker's Power of Attorney

- (a) In the event of the Bank exercising its rights of Set-off to transfer, amalgamate or combine the Account with any other account, the Customer hereby irrevocably appoints the Bank and the persons deriving title under the Bank and separately any Receiver appointed under any Security or pursuant hereto severally to be the Customer's attorney in its name and on its behalf.

- (b) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Bank may execute or complete any documents which the Bank may require for perfecting its title to or for vesting the assets held by the Bank under lien, to sign seal deliver and otherwise perfect any such legal deeds and documents including without limitation the mortgages charges or assignments and to do all such acts and things as may be required for the full exercise of the powers hereby conferred including any sale lease disposition realization or getting in of the Customer's property held under the Bank's lien.

8. Communications

8.1 Statements

- (a) The Bank shall provide the Customer with a Statement from time to time and the Customer acknowledges and agrees that the contents of the Statement to which the Customer has not objected to within fifteen (15) days from the date of the Statement shall be deemed to be correct in all material respects and not be challenged by the Customer under any circumstances whatsoever, whether lack of mandate, forged or inadequate signature of endorsement of cheques, forged alteration thereof or otherwise.
- (b) All Electronic Banking activities performed by the Customer once allowed access into the System will be logged until the Customer ends a session. The bank shall maintain copies of all Requests received from the Customer in applicable multi-media form. In addition, any hard copies of documentation prepared by the Bank in the process of effecting a transaction as per the Customer's Requests will be maintained. The Bank's copy records shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of receipt or non-receipt of a Request and of the contents of such Request as well as prima facie proof that a transaction or payment was made with the Customer's authority.

8.2 Notes

- (a) Any notice, letter or other communication from the Bank to the Customer shall be sent to the address of the Customer and the date on the Bank's copy of any such communication is taken to be the date of dispatch in the absence of proof to the contrary whereas in the case of posting it shall be sufficient to prove that the communication was properly stamped and addressed.
- (b) Any notice, letter or communications addressed to the Bank shall be in writing or where with the prior approval of the Bank, by email, telephone, facsimile, SWIFT and/or such other means as the Bank may approve from time to time and shall be addressed to the Branch Manager (where the Account has been opened).
- (c) The Bank shall not be liable for any damage resulting from losses, delays, misunderstandings, duplications, or any other irregularities due to transmission of any communication whether to or from the Customer, the Bank or any third party, by telephone, delivery, post, facsimile, e-mail, telegraph, SWIFT or any other means of communication.

8.3. Delay by Customer in lodging complaints

The Bank shall not be responsible to address any Customer complaints unless the Customer makes a written complaint to the Bank as soon as reasonably possible and in any event, within twenty eight (28) days from the date of occurrence of event or transaction complained of.
